

Panel Discussion: What Will the Students Do in a Down Economy Today?

Participants: Leo Bruno, Ivana Mrozkova, Quah Hoo,

Susan Sapsed, Penelope Keough, and Donald Hsu

Date: June 9, 2009

Location: Tallinn University Technology, Faculty Economics and Business

Administration, Room 315, Kopli Street, Tallinn, Estonia

1. Leadership - L Bruno

- benefits
- managers to leaders
- personal values
- different phases
- role models
- assessment tools
- bottom line: save resources
- human development
- adding value to society

2. Communication - Mrozkova

- the most important piece
- all courses in English
- Applied Linguistics
- role play
- presentation skills
- interpersonal skills
- Social science, psych, MNCs

3. Ethics - Hoo

- Chinese students study business and they work hard to make it

- Malay students aspired to government jobs
- Indian students study Medicine or Law

4. Healthcare - Sapsed

- International online E-learners
- Master degree Public Health
- Students are already working in the field
- They work as civil servants

5. Teacher Education - Keough

- Special education majors
- Visually impaired
- Handicapped and multiply handicapped
- Graduate level, 24 courses
- Course runs one month each for two years
- They pass teacher certification exam
- Then they can teach

6. Business - Hsu

- Business 23% of 1 million graduates in USA
- IT jobs are back
- If you have a MS and years of experience, you will qualify for high-pay IT jobs.
- Accounting jobs are way up since 2006
- Management and marketing always good
- Entry level operation jobs

